Kentucky Geological Survey.

A visit to the department of the Geological Survey at Frankfort operates as a revelation to most people. The accuracy and extent of the work that has been done since 1854 by the Survey, first under the direction of Dr. D. D. Owens, then by Dr. S. S. Hildreth and lastly by J. R. Proctor, is all wonderful to contemplate. The State's boundary has been located. Coal measures have been discovered, named and opened. The topography of three-fourths of the State has been exactly mapped and published. Eastern Kentucky has been redeemed from barbarism, and Central Kentucky from ignorance. Through its work alone Kentucky has been able to increase in assessed valuation over two hundred millions of dollars and the immense resources of the State made known to the world. It is not disparagement of the work of his predecessors, but a deserved tribute to himself to say these results are mainly due to the intelligent and unremitting labors of the present director of the survey, Mr. J. R. Proctor. In addition to his thorough knowledge of geology, he possesses an ardent love for Kentucky, and his gentle courtesy and modesty are as pronounced and admirable as his information is extensive and his industry untiring. His practical acquaintance with his life work is displayed in passionate love of the specimens he has gathered which is only exceeded by his exuberant and exultant hopes for the material prosperity of his State. Not only has his painstaking research led to the development of the coking coals and the other mineral industries of Eastern and Western Kentucky but his artistic nature and constant lauding of Kentucky's merits have led to the production in the literary magazines of this country and Europe, of illustrated and descriptive articles of the most attractive and remunerative sort for the people. Whatever Kentucky now enjoys in actual or projected blast furnaces and basic steel factories, and in iron and coal production, is the result of the painstaking labors and intelligent publications of the Geological Survey. And that womanhood are not the only products of the "dark and bloody ground" is becoming known more and more every day, through the same agency. The efforts of this department have attracted more capital and people to this State in the last ten years than all other causes combined. Let the Survey be put upon a more substantial basis than ever. To discontinue it now or to cripple it with insufficient funds is to retard the progress and prosperity of the best of States.—Allen Reflector.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 27, 1889.

WHO ARE THEY.

"Prof. John R. Proctor, despite the little and contemptible methods resorted to in an effort to belittle him has come out on top with flying colors. Prof. Proctor is one of the finest and best men connected with the State Government and right and justice always triumph in the end. Now let the squirt guns be filled with muddy water and pointed in another direction."—Bowling Green Times.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Ida ville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle, at P. H. Carpenter's Drug Store."

Col. Davis' House Burned.

The residence of Col. John F. Davis, ex-Commissioner of Agriculture, was destroyed by fire at Shelbyville at 2 o'clock Thursday night. The house and contents were entirely consumed, and there was only eighteen hundred dollars insurance upon the property.

Water Spout.

About 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon a large cloud burst just east of the Forks of Elkhorn. The whole face of the earth was flooded, the crops were greatly damaged, and Holton's branch became a rushing torrent, carrying off fencing and one bent of the Kentucky Midland trestle, which crosses the stream.

Carpenter, Johnny and his two brothers and a sister, who reside in Lexington, came into the possession of a farm of three hundred acres lying in Marion county. Johnny is one of the brightest, jolliest and most accommodating little fellows in the city, and everyone who knows him will congratulate him on his good fortune.

Bank Failure.

The Merchants and Miners Bank of Talapoosa, Georgia, has closed its doors. The bank was founded and largely capitalized by Kentuckians, and Mr. J. W. Caseldine, formerly of Eminence, and father-in-law of Rev. H. G. Henderson, of this city, was the cashier. Mr. Caseldine resigned the cashiership of the Farmers and Drovers Bank of Eminence about two years ago and removed to Talapoosa to take charge of the new bank. A full investigation by the courts acquitted Mr. Caseldine of all blame in connection with the failure, and the citizens of Talapoosa applauded his entire course in the matter, but the trouble threw him into a severe spell of illness.

A Blow from a Stepfather.

Some two months ago Charley Romans, a little colored boy aged twelve years, who lived with his mother and stepfather, in a house in the alley just back of Swigert's block on St. Clair street, got out of bed one morning and began to play with his halfbrother, two years younger than he, and the racket they raised so enraged John Brooks, the stepfather, that he caught up a plank, ran up stairs and began beating the Romans child with it, striking him upon the head, shoulders and legs. The next day the little fellow began to complain of his head, a lump having formed upon it, and in a few days he took to his bed. His mother called in a physician, but did not tell him at first what caused the trouble. When the doctor was informed he treated him for it, but the little fellow grew gradually worse—one side finally becoming paralyzed—until he died on Tuesday. Mrs. Chas. Stubenrauch, who had been sending the child delicacies to eat during his illness, heard of the cruel treatment he had received, and told Mr. Ed. Grant, who reported the matter to Mr. Ben Farmer, Secretary of the Humane Society. Mr. Farmer sent for Officer Henry Brown and placed the case in his hands, who made an investigation, and upon his report a warrant was sworn out by the Society for Brooks' arrest and he was locked up. Mr. Farmer then made application to the County Attorney to have an inquest held upon the body of the dead boy, and Coroner Dehoney was notified, who summoned a jury and ordered an autopsy to be performed. The investigation resulted in the jury finding that the boy came to his death from the effects of a blow upon the head inflicted by John Brooks. The autopsy revealed the fact that both the outer and inner plates of the skull were crushed and that an abscess had formed both on the outside and inside, and a large portion of the brain and a portion of the inside of the skull had been absorbed.

Brooks claims that the boy was struck upon the head with a rock by a schoolmate, but the proof before the jury was that the injured child told everyone who asked him about it that Brooks struck him, and the little boy who was present when the beating was administered also stated that he saw and heard the lick given.

Just as sure as hot weather comes there will be more or less bowel complaint in this vicinity. FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Selected at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

450, A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 4, 1892.

A Frankfort Boy Appreciated.

Mr. Ben. F. Meek, Jr., wife and children, of St. Paul, Minnesota, who have been visiting his sister, Mrs. Richard Church, in this city, left Thursday afternoon for home. Mr. Meek was born and reared in this city, and this being his first visit to the home of his childhood in many years, was a great treat to him. While here he made free use of his Kodak and carried home with him numerous photographs of the beautiful scenery in and around this city. Since his residence in St. Paul he has been engaged in various business enterprises, but three years ago he entered the employ of the Northwest Thompson-Houston Electric Co., at small salary, and the company soon finding they had a good man, promoted him rapidly, until now he is Secretary and Assistant Treasurer of the corporation, and up to the time he left home was drawing a salary of four thousand dollars a year. On his arrival in this city he found a letter from the President of his company notifying him that his salary had been raised to five thousand a year, to date from May first, which of course added greatly to the pleasure of his visit, as he could tell his old friends here, who know his true worth, that he is being appreciated in his new home in the great Northwest.

Ben looks the same as when he left here, some fifteen years ago, time having dealt gently with him, and we hope that he may yet live to draw a similar salary that paid the President of his company—two thousand a year—as no boy who ever left the little Valley City to seek his fortune is more worthy of it.

Axe vs. Pistol.

A difficulty occurred at the Hermitage Distillery, about two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, between Mr. Al. Caplinger, the engineer, and George Smith, one of the mash floor hands in which a pistol and an axe played prominent parts, but fortunately, no one was injured.

It seems that Caplinger, some time ago, had reported Smith to the Superintendent of the Distillery for coming into his department and making too free use of material in his charge, which angered Smith, and he made frequent threats that he was going to whip Caplinger before the season was over. On Sunday Smith took a ladder from Caplinger's department, used it while engaged in white washing the fermenting tubs and left it in a filthy condition, and Caplinger had to clean it off the next day before he could use it, for which he gave Smith a "cussing" the first chance he got at him. At noon Tuesday Smith armed himself while at home and afterwards went where Caplinger was sitting down and began to abuse him, at the same time displaying a pistol. Caplinger, who is a much smaller man than Smith, but very quick, sprang to his feet and struck him with a rock. Smith attempted to shoot, but the pistol snapped, when he started to run, and Caplinger caught up an axe and rushed after him. Smith turned, fired upon him, the pistol being so close to Caplinger's face when it went off that the powder burned his cheek, but the ball went wide. Caplinger pursued him into the distillery and up on a beer sink, from which point he fired a second shot, which also went wide, and by that time Mr. Marion Williams, the distiller, and some of the other employees arrived on the ground and stopped the fight. They will be tried this morning before Judge Ben. G. Williams.

School Commencement.

The annual commencement of the High School Department of the Public School will take place at the Opera House, on Thursday evening, June 16th, at 8 o'clock, and handsome invitations have been issued for the event, one of which has been received by the ROUNDABOUT. Seven young ladies, viz: Misses Ada Belle Rupe, Annie Belle Magill, Bonnie Luckett Hockersmith, Florence Helen French, Georgia Payne, Sarah Walcott Grant and Virginia Rosina Nelson, compose the graduating class. A splendid programme, interspersed with music, has been arranged for the occasion.

Double Bills.

Mr. W. C. Duvall brought to this office on Saturday a queer looking chicken hatched on his place. It had two perfectly formed bills, with three eyes, one on each side and one in the center of the head between the bills.

His Last Trip.

Dr. W. E. Baxter desires us to state that his trip to Louisville on the 9th will be the last this season (as the Dental Department of the University will soon close for the year), and after this date his patients can find him in his office during all business hours.

A Delicious Bunch.

Mr. George D. Single placed on our table Monday a large bunch of strawberries on the stem, arranged in the shape of a bouquet. They were of the old fashioned variety, finely flavored, and when picked off and sugar added topped off a first class meal for several.

A Lady Candidate.

Miss Lucy Pattie, of Farmdale, is being urged by her friends to make the race for County Superintendent of Schools. She is thoroughly well qualified, as she has been a teacher for years, and would make a good and efficient officer. Madison and Lee counties already have lady superintendents, and they are among the best of the State.

Across the Deep, to the Far West.

On steamboats, cars and stage-coaches, Hostett's Stomach Bitters is carried as the most important item in the materia medica of the traveling public. It deprives vitiated, brackish water of its hurtful properties and exerts a flavor, counteracts the pernicious effects upon the stomach of bad or indigestible food, remedies cramps, heartburn and wind upon the stomach. It is the defense against malarial fevers, nullifies the effects of excessive heat, cold and damp, relieves sick-headaches, and is an incompressible cure for constiveness and biliousness. The fatigue of travel often bills most disastrous upon invalids and convalescents, occasionally to such an extent as to jeopardize life. Persons in feeble health, apprehensive of bad effects from travel, will, if provided with the Bitters, be far less likely to have their fears realized.

Something New.

Dr. W. E. Baxter showed us yesterday an Alcohol vaporizer, a new and neat instrument to be used for obtruding sensitive dentine. By its use the most sensitive tooth can be operated upon without the slightest pain, and indeed it is an ingenious contrivance. Dr. Baxter will demonstrate its use before the class in Dental Surgery, in the lecture room of the Dental Department of Central University next Wednesday, and we predict a successful clinic.

Here's to You, Danny.

The engagement of Mr. Daniel Mayes Bowman, one of the editors of the Woodford Sun, and Miss Cicely DeGraffenried McCaw, of Fayette county, is announced. We have not the pleasure of the fortunate young lady's acquaintance, but we do know that she has captured one of the best and cleverest young newspaper men in the State, who will make a first-class husband, and we congratulate her. That she is beautiful, amiable and accomplished goes without saying, for none other could find a place in the affections of such a noble young man. Here's looking at you, Danny, my boy. May all the joys and none of the sorrows of life come to you and the fair one with whom you propose to link your life.

The True Laxative Principle.

Of the plants used in manufacturing the pleasant remedy, Syrup of Figs, has a permanently beneficial effect on the human system, while the cheap vegetable extracts and mineral solutions, usually sold as medicines, are permanently injurious. Being well-informed, you will use the true remedy only. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Notice—Piano Tuning.

Mr. Chas. Vauple, leading piano tuner in Kentucky, having been 12 years with one of the largest piano factories in New York City, and who is at present with one of the most enterprising piano firms in the country, will be in our city, June 7th. Leave or ders at Averill's Drug Store and they will receive prompt attention.

Base Ball.

The first game of the season with Pleasureville at Lake Park Monday resulted in a defeat for the home boys. While not a pretty game from a scientific standpoint, it was very interesting from the closeness of the score at all points, and it required an extra inning to decide it. The best features were Wintersmith's shortstop play for Frankfort and the hard hitting of the Pleasurevilles.

Both sides scored in the first. Newman sent the ball to second and beat it out, stole second and came home on Hammond's error and Merchant's hit. For the Pleasurevilles, A. Rucker got his base on balls and scored on Black's two-bagger.

Neither side scored again until the latter half of the fourth. Kesler took first on Wintersmith's error and reached third on an error and Meredith's sacrifice. He scored on Davis' miff of Wintersmith's pretty assist of Lawrence's hit. Jacoby ended the inning by striking out. In the first half of the next inning the home boys went on batter on Meredith's error of Wintersmith's hit, Stag's single, E. Rucker's error and Hewitt's tie.

Pleasureville tied in the sixth. Kesler made a hit. Jackson took first on Newman's fumble, but overran the bag, turning toward second and was put out by Lindsey. Meredith made a hit, advancing Kesler to third and he scored on Lindsey's fly to center, which Vanderveer caught but could not return to the plate. Jacoby again struck out.

Pleasureville scored seven in the seventh on three errors and six hits. The scores came in so fast that it was almost impossible to keep track of the plays, and the crowd felt very blue, but when our boys made the same number in the eighth, through the poor fielding of the visitors, the yell would have been heard to the far South of Frankfort. The feature of this inning was Hewitt's three-bagger into the pond, which Hammond waded after. Pleasureville again took the lead in their half on three hits and some more errors, resulting in two runs. They pounded Merchant so hard that the home boys could scarcely hold the sphere when they got their hands on it.

In the ninth our boys took the lead again, making three scores on Hammond's error of Merchant's hit, Wintersmith's two-bagger, Stag's hit, Vanderveer's hit and E. Rucker's error of Newman's hit. Wintersmith came home on Stag's hit, but was declared out for running into Meredith. Hewitt got his base on balls, but he, Newman and Vanderveer, were left on Davis' fly to Black.

The visitors tied the score in their half. Black made a hit. Hammond knocked a long fly to Hunt, which he might have captured, but slipped up on the grass and the ball went through his hands. Black attempted to score on the error, but was caught between home and third and run down by Davis. Hammond came in on Lindsey's error of Newman's assist on Rucker's grounder, and a general miffing match on the return. Newman then got the ball and held it while Merchant pretended to pitch. Rucker who was on third, unexpectedly played off and Newman touched him out. Jackson made the third out, Newman to Lindsey.

The home boys were blanked in the tenth. In the visitors' half Meredith knocked a grounder to Wintersmith, which, to everybody's surprise, that excellent player let escape him. Lawrence knocked out a three bagger and the game was over.

The score in the "official" score, but it didn't begin to tell the errors which were made:

Duke of Glenwater

"The fine young Jack, Duke of Glenwater, will make the season of 1892 at our farm, nine miles east of Frankfort, on the Frankfort & Versailles turnpike, at $25 to insure a jack, or $15 to insure a pair. Duke is a black jack, with white points, 155 hands high, was foaled in 1887, sired by Larry Jones' famous premium jack, which sold for $1,500, he by Tobey's jack, Alexander, noted as the sire of fine, big jacks, he by Bourne, he by Lee's Napoleon. Duke's dam was sired by Wells' premium jack, he by Iron Duke. This jack would have been too good to be fully appreciated, although his breeding shows for itself, as he constitutes the best blood in Kentucky, and has proven worthy of his breeding. Let us be granted at $1.50 per month and given careful attention. We will not be responsible for accidents. For further information, write to HOLT & GRAHAM, FRANKFORT, KY.

Or call on Mr. Holt at the farm, on the Versailles & Frankfort turnpike, near McKee's cross roads, May 7-10.

Among the Colored Citizens.

The Teachers' institute was held at the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening and the programme was both excellent in itself and well rendered. There were some splendid papers and addresses which were well received. After the exercises were concluded ice cream was served in the rear of the church.

Miss Jennie Suter, of Louisville, is in the city this week, stopping with Miss Williams, on the South Side.

The Normal School commencement exercises were held at the Opera House Thursday evening and a large crowd was out to hear the grand programme. We hope to give a full account of the occasion next week.

The Normal Literary Society had a large crowd out Wednesday at the First Baptist Church.

The gentlemen who acted as marshals of the procession Monday were credible looking members of the race and did their work right well.

Capt. J. H. Thompson and the camp left the city Friday.

Tramp, tramp, they went to the city of the dead to share their respect for those who fought in the black regiment. It was well demonstrated that the good that men do is not always lost to the world. In the soul, but lives longer in the memory of their comrades and children than so many monuments of stone. At two o'clock Monday evening the procession moved from the First Baptist Church through the principal streets of the city to the cemtery. Jesse Hocker was marshal of the day, and the procession advanced in this order: Brady's Band, Monroe Post, No. 44, school children carrying flags, civil societies on foot and citizens in carriages. At the cemetery the ceremonies were begun with a salute from Monroe Post. Addresses were delivered by Professors Monroe, Jackson and Credit, which were good and well received. Others who took a prominent part were Misses McFarland and D. B. Price, Dr.
Underwood and Messrs. Blackburn and Lane.

"Down on your knees, and thank Heaven fasting," not for a good man's love this time, but because you have cured your cold so easily with Dr.
Bull's Cough Syrup.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of the ROUNDABOUT will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure
now known to the medical fraternity.
Catarrh being constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The following item clipped from the Ft. Madison (Iowa), Democrat, contains information well worth remembering: "Mr. John Roth, of this city, who met with an accident a few days ago, spraining and bruising his leg and arm quite severely, was cured
by one 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm." This remedy is without an equal for sprains and bruises and should have a place in every household. For sale by J. W.
Gayle, Druggist. 39-1m.

Odds and Ends.

ONE of the most amusing features of last Monday's base ball game was the number of sharp tricks which the home boys worked off on the countrymen. Goodie Hammond, the captain of the Pleasureville boys is a player who never resorts to tricks himself, and while his long experience upon the ball field precludes the ideas that he does not know how to use them, if so inclined, still it must be confessed that he not infrequently prejudices the interests of his club by his easy going tactics.

He seems to depend entirely upon the batting qualities of his team to secure the victory. And my, how they do slug the ball!

TOMMY NEWMAN was the hero of the day in more ways than one. He made the champion error record, fumbling nearly every chance he had.
But when he worked his slick trick
of concealing the ball while Merchant was going through all the preliminaries of pitching, and then calmly walking over and touching out E. Rucker, whose score would have won the game in the regular number of innings, the crowd was ready to forgive and forget all his past sins.

THE MAGAZINES for June are one of the richest feasts of literature which has yet been provided for readers of this city. The Cosmopolitan, The North American Review, in particular, has one of the strongest numbers which ever issued from the office of the publication. The leading topic, of course, is the political situation, and the discussion of President Harrison's administration, pro by Senators Davies, of Massachusetts, and Pol-
of Oregon, and con by Senator Colquhoun of Georgia. It is an able presentation of several other special papers, and the number has as usual something to suit all tastes. The Review of Reviews, "the busy man's magazine," fully maintains its title and is rapidly becoming a prime favorite.

tended her funeral in that place on Sunday.

They've Gone Home.

The corps of cadets from the State College at Lexington, who have been in camp on Mr. Henry Church's place, out on the Peak's Mill Pike, broke camp Tuesday and returned to Lexington. Monday afternoon they participated in a sham battle, during which one party were retreating towards a stone fence, with bayonets fixed. When they reached the fence
they were ordered to set their guns
over the wall and then climb over.
One of the cadets, by the name of Williams, in obeying this order, got upon the top of the fence and jumped down, and in the descent his left arm came in contact with the bayonet on his gun, which passed through the fleshy part of the forearm and entered the muscles between the elbow and shoulder, inflicting a painful but not dangerous wound. He received medical attention on the spot and was able to go home with the rest.
The officers and some of the cadets

Decoration Day.

Decoration day was observed on Monday with appropriate ceremonies. The members of the G. A. R.
and their friends formed a procession
at the Custom House at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and headed by the drum corps, proceeded to the Cemetery, where the ritualistic services of the G. A. R. were performed by A. G.
Bacon Post, and an address was delivered by Senator Jones, after which the graves of the Union soldiers were beautifully decorated with flowers by fourty-four little girls. George W.
Monroe Post, colored, also formed a procession at the First Independent Baptist Church and with Brady's Band proceeded to the Far Cemetery,
where quite an elaborate programme, consisting of music, addresses and poems was gone through and the graves of the colored soldiers buried there were also profusely decorated with flowers.

The Garfield Club.

Editor Roundabout:
The Garfield Club was organized November 2, 1891, with a membership of about one hundred white Republicans. It has been steadily growing until now it has some two hundred members.

The Club was incorporated for the propagation of the principles of the Republican party, the promotion of friendly and social relations among the members thereof, and to better discharge the duties connected with the foregoing objects.

It was through the influence of the Club that a candidate was put in the field in the late Mayoralty race, and although we did not elect our man, we had the Democrats pretty badly frightened, and caused them to resort to things which should not have been done. Not to be disheartened at the result, the Club has continued to grow until now it is established on a firm basis, both numerically and financially. It was at first thought—and it is yet by that the Club was only a temporary organization. We desire to impress upon the minds of all that such is not the case. It is a permanent organization. It has a great future before it and will undoubtedly make its influence felt in the coming campaign.

It is not the purpose of the Club to promote the interests of any candidate for office, or faction in the party. It stands on a broad, unimpeachable ground, and if differences are incurred among the members thereof on account of conflicts in past conventions, that should not deter them from taking an active interest in the welfare of the Club. The Club was organized solely to promote the interests of the Republican party, and not any wing or faction thereof. This is an organization of white Republicans only.

In accordance with the Constitution adopted by the Club, at our next regular meeting, which will be held on the evening of June 11th, there will be an election of officers to serve for the ensuing year. Let every member attend, especially those living in the country, as business of importance will be attended to.

W. H. V.

Hon. W. V. Lucas, Ex State Auditor of Iowa, writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family and have no hesitation in saying it is an excellent remedy. I believe all that is claimed for it. Persons afflicted by a cough or cold will find it a friend." There is no danger from whooping cough when this remedy is freely given. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle, Drugist. 39-1m.

Forks of Elkhorn.

We have had two monster rains this week. Tobacco setting about over.

Last Sunday was a fifth Sunday; the Churches in our little village were closed and no preaching.

Regular services at the Christian Church to-morrow morning and night, at the usual hours. Elders Creighton and Clubb will both be with us.

Mr. Bob Redd has rented Mr. Albert Hockersmith's house and moved in Monday.

Mr. Howard Steadman, who has been living in Georgetown for a year or more, has returned to our burg and moved into his house lately occupied by Mr. Redd.

Mrs. Applegate is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Triplett.

Mr. John McBride and wife and Miss Mattie Greenup and Mr. Tyler attended the dedication at Swallowfield last Sunday. All got home safe, although Mr. Tyler's horse wanted to run off badly. Nothing serious happened though. All's well that ends well.

Miss Jennie Macklin is home from Cincinnati, where she has been attending the Art Academy.

Mr. Gipp Thompson, of Steadman-town, who has been quite ill, is some better at this writing.

Mr. Parrent closed his school Tuesday and he reports a fair attendance throughout. The exhibition was well attended although the evening was quite rainy. All the scholars vied one with the other in their several parts which were well rendered. They all had a picture taken of the school and scholars for a memento in the future of the happy days at school.

Mr. William Perkins and family are visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity this week.

The National Life Insurance Co.

D. G. Drake, manager of the National Life Insurance Co., of Vermont, for southwestern Ohio and Kentucky, is in the city looking for a good man to take the agency of this company for Franklin county.

The National, although young in Kentucky, is one of the oldest companies doing business. It was incorporated in 1848, and the Hon. Henry Clay was one of its original incorporators. Although only one year in the State the National enrolls among its policy holders a number of Kentucky citizens. The charm of the National is its conservative management and unparalleled contract. In low death rate, high interest and surplus rates, it is unsurpassed. Its policy contract is a model of square dealing. The manager would take great pleasure in furnishing information and literature to any one desiring to represent a first-class company in Frankfort. Any person desiring insurance would do well before taking it to send age and address, stating kind and amount wanted, and get a fac-simile of the National's policy. For all information, address, D. G. DRAKE, 9 Hammond Building, Cincinnati, O.

Are any number of wheels on the market to-day, but there is only one in use that compares with that the world is calling "the King." That machine is the celebrated RABBITER, with its great pneumatic or cushion tires, its great spring frame, its long steering horn, its great chain, and last but not least, its all-sterling and easy running qualities. Don't be induced to buy a wheel until you have seen the Rabbiter. It is worth coming out of your way to see. You will never regret having examined one.

If you are sick, if you are disgusted with drugs and expensive doctor bills, write to DuBois & Webb, Fourth and Jefferson streets, Louisville, Ky., and get full information regarding this wonderful instrument. Diseases of all kinds can be cured easier and quicker by it than any other means. Gov. Thos. M. Holt, of North Carolina, says he always gets good results from the use of the Electro-Poise.

W. H. Morgan, M. D., D. D. S., Dean of Vanderbilt Dental College, of Nashville, Tenn., says: "The Electro-Poise entirely relieved me of severe rheumatism, enabled me to sleep well and get about without crutches; also cured my wife of rheumatism."
